Now with ten years of experience making childrens dreams come true

Teen Camp: Available to ages 13 – 16 years, with riders able to walk, trot/jog, lope/canter, goom and tack own horse. This week includes a ride swimming with there horses, and camping away from the farm. A bit of a survival trip, as they will also be required to help around the camp site.

Western Riding Camp

9:00-5:00 daily

Ages 8 - 15 years of age.

Children staying overnight form Sunday night to Friday. Spend the entire week with horses. Riding skills will be taught with western riding lessons, trail rides, and Cowboy oriented games.

Learning about our friend the Horse will include stable management, grooming, horse care, nutrition, breeds and the history of the horse.

We will step back in time and visit the way of the Indians and Pioneers working with the land to make crafts and tools.

Friday will be an exciting day for parents and children with our afternoon Rodeo.

The week will include:

- ◆ Riding lesson daily
- ◆ Trail ride daily
- ◆ Rodeo games with horses daily.
- ◆ Horse-care, maintenance and theory daily
- ◆ Swimming & Indian crafts
- ◆ Bring a white T-shirt on Friday for tie-dying
- ◆ Friday horse demonstration and games for parents to view

About us: Safety is our number one requirement, We use covered stirrups on our saddles, provide helmets, small group lessons for personalized attention. Campers ratio is 1 supervisor for every 3 children, staff have the St. Johns Ambulance Certificate, and are qualified instructors.
